

AGENDA ITEM E – ATTACHMENT B

TITLE II FORMULA BLOCK GRANT SNAPSHOT

I. Probation and Court-Based Alternatives Project

The Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC) Subcommittee, at the direction of the State Advisory Committee on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (SACJJDP), is exploring detention utilization as the result of violations of probation (VOP) and administrative bench warrants as these actions often lead to detention and contribute to disproportionality.

Request for Proposals (RFP) Goal: Reduce the number of youth detained for probation violations and failures to appear (FTA) bench warrants.

Program length: One-time dollar amount for 12-month project

Program Dollar amount: $1.5 million

Eligible applicants: Court and Probation Dual Application

$1.5 million
one time allocation

II. Disproportionate Minority Contact Reduction

Using a multi-faceted approach of direct service, education, and support, California strives to reduce the overrepresentation of youth of color coming into contact with the juvenile justice system - with the ultimate goal being a fair and equitable justice system. Toward that end, the DMC statewide initiative follows three tracks: direct service education/awareness; and support through both resources and advocacy. Projects: Technical Assistance Project (TAP) II and Support Grants; Curriculum Development, Regional Training, Technical Assistance Training, Racial Impact Statement Implementation (underway and ongoing).

Approximately
$2 million annually

III. Tribal Youth Grant Program

Funding opportunity is built upon the beliefs and values associated with Native culture (as defined in the Gathering of Native Americans - GONA principles):¹

- Belonging: Creating a Culture of Inclusion
- Mastery: Starting a Path to Healing
- Interdependence: Fostering Personal and Community Development
- Generosity: Honoring the Tradition of Giving Back to the Community

In an effort to encourage tribal specific programs that factor in traditional values and traditional ways of knowing, the SACJJDP awarded tribes that are transformational and factor in the following priorities:

- Capacity building for Tribal communities
- Culture is Prevention
- Holistic approaches to community wellness, including interconnectedness and community empowerment
- Incorporation of traditional practices (ceremony, spiritual connection, cultural participation)

$240,000 annually
for up to 4 years

IV. Title II – RFP Development

- Alternatives to Detention
- Holistic Approach to Offender Counsel
- Restorative Justice Principles

Approximately
$4.5 million annually

V. Compliance Monitoring

Statutory and data collection (underway and ongoing)

$547,000 annually

¹ Tribal Prevention Program- <http://preventiontraining.samhsa.gov/cti05/manpm.htm>